

Bishop-Wisecarver Giving Guidelines

Bishop-Wisecarver (BW) considers supporting both individuals and organizations through donations provided the request is related to science, technology, engineering, education and/or manufacturing. Eligible requests can be in the form of financial contribution or production donation.

Restricted Areas

Bishop-Wisecarver will not provide financial support to the following:

1. Organizations, activities, and programs that are specifically designed to promote religious principles
2. Political parties, organizations, candidates or activities
3. Capital campaigns
4. Deficit or retroactive funding
5. Organizations that demonstrate unlawful, unethical or discriminatory practices
6. Organized nonacademic after-school activities such as bands, debate teams or sports; activities unrelated to engineering or manufacturing.

Finally, we reserve the right to interpret, apply and administer our donations program as we see fit.

Granting Cycles and Proposal Deadlines

Bishop-Wisecarver considers providing donations throughout the calendar year. Only one request per organization/individual will be considered in one calendar year. Applicants will be notified as to if their request for funds or products are approved.

Submitting a Request

To submit a donation request, provide a concise written proposal including the following information:

1. Organization name, address, phone number, email address, contact person, title, URL (if available), and the type of donation requested. (If requesting product, please state the specific product – specify the size, quantity and length needed.)
2. Organization description and years in business
3. How the donation will be used
4. Anticipated program results/goals

- 5. Who will benefit from the project and why is this important?
 - 6. Confirm that the organization meets Bishop-Wisecarver's giving guidelines
 - 7. Include names of any Bishop-Wisecarver employees or manufacturer representatives that are involved with your project.
 - 8. Include any supporting documents such as brochures, pictures, etc. that may help in our decision-making process.
 - 9. Please sign and date your correspondence
 - 10. Include signed expectations form located at the bottom of this document
 - 11. If you are applying on behalf of an organization, please include proof that the organization is a nonprofit organization. United States Based organizations should show proof of 501(c)3 status.
